

A POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTION

British Columbia Institute of Technology Burnaby Campus

BCIT's Burnaby campus is the largest of our five locations. Beautiful greenspace lines the south end of the grounds, which feature Guichon Creek and a one-kilometre nature trail. The facilities listed in this brochure are just the beginning of what this campus has to offer. Conveniently located beside the Trans Canada Highway, with ample parking for $3 per day, hotel accommodation nearby and two major shopping centres within minutes, BCIT can host your next meeting, trade show, conference or special event with distinction.

The place to meet on Canada's West Coast

BUILDING SE-2

BCIT Burnaby Campus

Building South East 2 (SE-2)

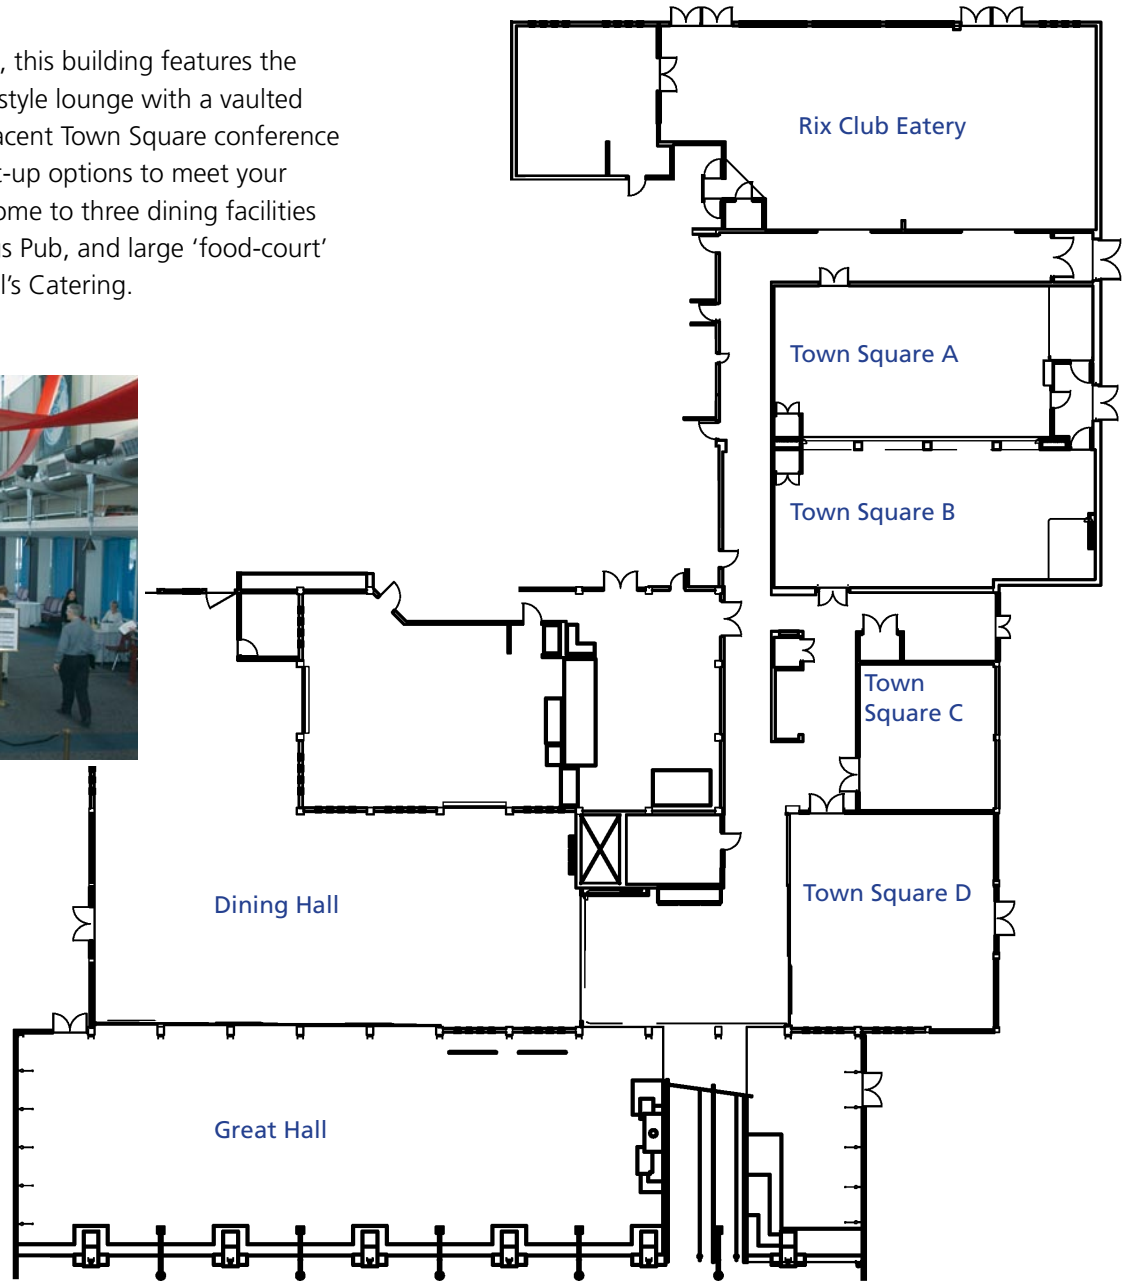

The heart of BCIT's Burnaby campus, this building features the Great Hall, a naturally-lit, courtyard-style lounge with a vaulted ceiling three stories above. Four adjacent Town Square conference rooms offer an array of sizes and set-up options to meet your requirements. The building is also home to three dining facilities – the Rix Club eatery, Professor Mugs Pub, and large 'food-court' style cafeteria operated by Chartwell's Catering.

BCIT Burnaby Campus

Building South East 6 (SE-6) IBM Techology Building

The lobby of SE-6 features an arched bridge and sky lights connecting the hall of naturally-lit classrooms to the main entrance. Newly renovated, the Telus Theatre's tiered seating accommodates up to 300 in comfort and style, with all the amenities required for your lecture-style event: sound system, lighting and a ceiling-mounted LCD Projector. Ten adjoining classrooms (not shown) are available for smaller meetings and breakout sessions. All classrooms are equipped with whiteboards and overhead projectors. The lobby connects to SE-2, mere steps to the Rix Club eatery, Town Square Rooms and Great Hall.
